Selling your property.

Our approach to selling property has been refined over many years. It provides an effective and stress-free process that will deliver the best possible sale for your property.

STAGE 1: APPRAISAL

If you're thinking of selling your property, we'll be very happy to visit and give you a report on market conditions, as well as an initial no-obligation appraisal of your home. Should you decide to sell with us, our final assessment of your property will be made in conjunction with the Single Survey and Valuation that will be carried out as part of your Home Report.

STAGE 2: PREPARATION

We'll give you honest, well-informed advice on the best way to sell your property and will create a bespoke marketing strategy for you. We'll then prepare the material that will be used to market your property. This step involves the commissioning of high-quality photography of your home and the production of floorplans. You'll be able to choose from a number of proven brochure styles. There's also the opportunity to have a video of your property made. Your property will be placed on our website, which attracts in excess of 225,000 visits a month and is linked to key property portals such as Rightmove, OnTheMarket and The London Office.

STAGE 3: LAUNCH

When your property is launched to market, a For Sale board will go up and viewings will start. If you're unable to attend, a member of staff will conduct viewings on your behalf. Our database contains the details of over 12,400 active and qualified buyers. We'll e-mail all relevant buyers with details of your property. We can send out information through our Facebook, Instagram, and X accounts. We can also advertise your property at competitive rates in national newspapers and magazines such as The Times, The Scotsman, and The Herald.

STAGE 4: REPORTING & COMMUNICATION

We're committed to transparency in our service delivery and will keep in touch at every stage of the selling process. You'll receive regular reports from your selling agent. These will include feedback from viewings and details of all correspondence we have with potential buyers.

STAGE 5: NEGOTIATIONS

Our experienced team will conduct negotiations on your behalf. We'll use our expertise to meet your objectives for the sale and will liaise closely with you to agree a strategy to get you the very best deal. We'll keep you informed and up-to-date with every new development during the negotiation process. You'll be able to call your selling agent at any time to discuss how things are going.

STAGE 6: CONVEYANCING, EXCHANGE & COMPLETION

During the final stage of the process we'll be in contact with your solicitor to help facilitate the conclusion of your property sale. We'll remain actively involved all the way through to the handover stage to help make the entire process as smooth as possible for you.
